Description

Guest speakers will read books to students based on the theme of Education Week (Learning Success Today...Leading Success Tomorrow) and the theme of Library Week (Celebrating Our Past...Imagining Our Future).

Author Anne Patton will read her publications to Grades 1-6 students.

Staff and students at Balgonie Elementary practice RICRAC behaviour. The RICRAC acronym is used to remind students, parents, and community of the "responsibility, integrity, caring, respectful, academic, and cooperative" values we believe will enable our students to take a leadership role in learning and in life. Several RICRAC life lessons will be provided.

Several special guides teacher and student readers will be reading to students throughout the week.

Students will participate in "Thought Bubbles with Reading Buddies" where they will respond to a reading and writing prompt "Imagine what you will be when you grow up..."

Students will be Tipi raising in the Balgonie Elementary gym along with special guest Kelsey Starblanket. The Public is welcome to attend. (10:30 – 12:30 and 1:00 - 2:30 p.m.)

Join the Broadview School community for a burger, drink, and dessert for $5. Meet the teachers and other staff. Visit displays in the gym and tour classrooms. A short program will begin at 6:30 p.m.

There are a number of activities planned for Education Week. (1) All students will create a "Book Cover" to display throughout the school during Education Week. Theme of the book covers will be based on the topics of The Secret of My Success or When I Grow Up. (2) Team members from the RAMs and U of R Cougar women's soccer athletes will guest readers along with community members, past principals, and the town mayor. (3) The older students in the school will learn about ereaders, through the local library. (4) The Grade 7/8 class will do presentations to each class on the Clive Draycott Code of Ethics, which fits in with the theme "Learning Success Today". (5) There will be a clothing drive called Clothesline, through the Diabetes Foundation. Items accepted as donations include clothing, linens, shoes, toys, books, small appliances, kitchenware, small electronics, cell phones, laptops, and game consoles. Chances to win prizes will be provided through the library to any student who participates.

A variety of Education Week activities will occur during the week. (1) A family / home activity will involve a world map being sent home to all families with a request to plot ancestral roots. (2) A large school map will be created to plot the FQ ECS collective roots worldwide and highlight staff. (3) A Pioneer Day afterschool celebration complete with wagon rides and weiners and beans will occur on October 17. This event is open to the public. (4) October 19 will be dress up day in which staff and students dress to represent their cultural ancestry.

Academic awards for the 2011-2012 school year will be presented to last year's grades 9 - 11 students. The celebration will begin in the Greenall High School gym at 7:00 p.m.

Students and staff will participate in an unplugged session of singing. Performers sing, play guitar and entertain an audience of both staff and students. This is a monthly event at Greenall School!

To promote reading as a leisure activity a DEAR (Drop Everything and READ) time activity will be on Monday, October 15th at 9 am for 15 minutes.

The SLC is sponsoring a Girls' Night In which will run between the hours of 5:00 - 9:00 p.m. There will be supper followed by various sessions such as: manicures, massages, make-up, hair, exercise, etc. Tickets may be purchased from any SLC member.

The library will be open at lunch for an open coffee house, with coffee and donuts. Students and staff will be invited to come in and visit, browse new books and enjoy treats!

During the open house there will be a variety of sessions open to the public. (1) Watch a Junior Boys vs Junior Girls volleyball game; (2) Attend a Career Education meeting with Renette Edgar; (3) Attend a graduation meeting with Danielle Hardy; (4) Attend the presentation on Leukemia and Lymphoma "Collateral Damage"; Visit the "Just Bake It" table hosted by Valerie Steininger; and enjoy Chili and Bannock (silver collection). The time of the event is 4:00 until 8:00 p.m.

On October 17 & 19, from 2:30 to 3:30, students will launch the 2012-2013 Willow Books.
