PRAIRIE VALLEY SCHOOL DIVISION CELEBRATES PROVINCIAL STUDENTS' DAY

Today is Students' Day and Prairie Valley School Division administrators, support staff and teachers wish a warm welcome to all new and returning students.

“We are looking forward to another exciting and successful year here in Prairie Valley,” said Director of Education Ben Grebinski. “We know the importance of celebrating incremental achievements and this year, we are committed to celebrating the achievements of all students in our Division.”

The Division is welcoming approximately 8400 new and returning students and more than 1100 staff across 39 schools. The Division’s strategic plan for the 2017-18 school year will be available by September 30.

“Every student can improve and every step of that improvement is to be celebrated.”
