- You are required to stay in the room for the entire time the exam is scheduled for so ensure you have brought something to do if you complete your exam early.
- Additional time is given to complete exams if required. Please consider this in your arrangements for transportation when an afternoon exam is scheduled.
- Cell phones must be off and left with the supervising teacher. I-pods and MP3's are not permitted.
- Students must return their text books to the supervising teacher at the beginning of each exam.
- Students will not be allowed to leave during the exam – no bathroom breaks, locker stops, etc.
- If, for any reason, a student is unable to write a final exam at the scheduled time, a parent or legal guardian must phone the office beforehand.
- Arrangements will be made at the school if a student isn't able to write due to an emergency or bus unable to run however, departmentals are rescheduled by the Ministry and the next writing session would be March.
