PVSD Director of Education to Retire

Prairie Valley School Division Director Jan Chell submitted her resignation to the Board of Education yesterday at the June board meeting.

Board Chair Rod Luhning said, “We reluctantly accepted Mrs. Chell’s resignation. She has been instrumental in bringing the division together over the past two years. Her leadership has been invaluable and her approach to providing the best possible education for Prairie Valley students is exemplary. The Board wishes Mrs. Chell all the best in her retirement plans.”

Chell expressed her appreciation for the support of the Board and for the hard work staff members of Prairie Valley School Division have displayed during her tenure. “It was a tough choice to make,” said Chell. “Deciding to retire from the world of education, which has been the focus of my career and my passion, was a most difficult decision. Prairie Valley School Division has such potential and it has been my privilege to be a part of building the groundwork for the great things to come in the education of students in Saskatchewan.”

Chell will retire at the end of September 2008.

Prairie Valley School Division serves more than 8,000 students in 38 schools throughout south-eastern Saskatchewan. To support its vision of leadership in learning and in life, and through a commitment to shared values, the division strives to ensure a high-quality education that provides students with the tools to reach and exceed their potential.
